A GLORIOUS SIGHT.

The Capital at Washington at Sunrise.

The days of the 29th and 30th of August, 1862, were dark days for the armies and the cause of the North. For, on the old Bull Run battle-field, we had again met the enemy; had again wrestled with him in the agonies of battle throes; and had again been most ingloriously defeated. The battery, of which the writer of this was a member, had stood in the very van of the fight; had helped bear the brunt of that fearful battle, and had been so badly cut to pieces that it was ordered to Washington to undergo repairs at the arsenal there.

BRIGHT AND EARLY

on the morning of the 1st of September, we pulled out of Alexandra, and began our last march toward the "city of magnificent distances." As we moved painfully along the wearisome road, we reached the summit of a slight eminence, and there one of the most glorious sights greeted us that ever has been seen by man. Before us, and towering up in most imposing magnificence, was the snow white capitol building, one of the finest structures in this land of ours. It would have been a grand sight at any time; but now it was exceptionally so. For, as we approached it from the west the sun was slowly rising, directly behind it in the east and was lightening it up with

A THOUSAND GOLDEN SPLENDORS.

The countless panes of glass from cellar to dome were ablaze with light. Lurid floods of it seemed to roll from end to end, and from basement to pinnacle in mighty waves. While from the dazzling marble itself, a thousand times ten thousand silvery rays were reflected and made to envelope the whole in a brilliant sheen. The dome was especially grand. A fine piece of architecture in itself, it was now enwreathed in gold and silver splendors, and seemed a thing dropped from the heavenly Jeruselem.

STRUCK MOTIONLESS WITH AWE,

we instinctively stopped, and breathlessly drank in the whole glorious view. At our feet ran the Potomac, a noble stream; before us lay the western portion of the capital city; and back of that the marvelous sight so imperfectly described. For a moment we stood there in breathless silence, until, as the sun slowly arose from behind it, and made the scene all the more dazzling, we involuntarily broke out into a soldiers' hurrah, which made the echoes ring and ring again around us, and no wonder, for behind us were the memories of those two awful days; the fierce struggle; the terrible carnage; the

THOUSANDS OF DEAD AND DYING;

the agonies and horrors of deadly strife while before us, as though touched by the radient hand of God Himself, there towered up, in such magnificent splendor, the capitol building of of our nation, the emblem of that for which we had been fighting; the soul and centre of our hallowed cause. The writer has seen many glorious sights since, but none which has so deeply impressed itself on the tablets of his memory. CLIVE.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The New York Herald's Washington dispatch expresses the fear that the President will veto the Chinese bill.

At the village of Somerville, Maine, on the 14th, three small children were burned to death during the absence of their parents.

The house committee are to report a pension arrears appropriation bill for $26,800,000.

In Paris 500 Communists are shortly to be pardoned.

No fresh cases of the plague have been reported for a couple of days at St. Petersburg.

The Czar has ratified the definitive treaty of peace with Turkey.

The probabilities of an extra session are regarded in Washington as rather slim.

The anti-Chinese bill passed by the senate was drawn and introduced by Senator Sargent.

Jas. C. Marsh has been appointed postmaster at Grainland, Butte county.

On Sunday the body of an unknown woman was found in the bay at San Francisco.

Some twenty divorce bills were passed at the late session of the Arizona legislature.

A lawyer at Millville, Shasta county, has been arrested for perjury.

The Extra mining company, of Shasta, has suspended operation.

At the San Francisco sand-lots the Chinese bill has been accepted as a partial relief.

The soldiers' orphans' home, at Xenia, Ohio, was burned on the 16th; loss, $75,000

A force belonging to the Fifth cavalry left camp on Snake river on the 4th to pursue the Cheyennes, and suffered greatly. Five camps were made without wood or water, and the thermometer stood at 30 degrees below zero.

Talk is Cheap.

And so are fine clothing, boots shoes, hats and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of my specialties. Remember the place. Something of Interest to the Public.

Having opened a first-class merchant tailor establishment in Reno I beg leave to inform the public that I am prepared to make gentlemen's garments, and refer the public to my price-list below, which will convince all that the rates are reduced far below the prices formerly charged in the state of Nevada:

Pants, cashmere, made to order, from $8 to $12. Usual price, $12 to $16.

Black dress pants, from $12 to $15. Unusual price, $16 to $18.

Business suits, from $30 to $40. Usual price, $45 to $55.

Fine Scotch suits, imported goods, $45 Usual price, $60.

Fine diagonal suits, from $40 to $50. Usual price $60 to $70.

Fine black 6x-beaver dress suits, from $50 to $65. Unsual price, $65 to $80.

Give me a call and convince yourself. I guarantee a good fit for all work done in my shop. Clothes repaired and renovated on the shortest possible notice and satisfaction guaranteed. S. JACOBS,
MERCHANT TAILOR,

Let it Concern All.

Who is there that can say "I am under obligations to no one?" The young man just entering business life owes to the home in which he was nurtured and educated, to the parents who have supported him, and to the younger members of the family who have been denied luxuries to make his advancement sure. At middle age the necessity for insuring life increases with his responsibility. If in health, his first duty should be to attend to it. Unhealthy lives are not insured. Insure while you are in an insurable condition. Every day brings with it the possibility of some cause which will forever bar insurance. Let not the father of a family suffer the opportunity to pass without embracing it. He owes it to his life, to his children and to the State. To become a member of the Sonoma and Marin Mutual Beneficial Association of Petaluma costs from $8 to $10, according to age. Members of the Reno Agency have already been paid about $10,000 in benefits. Over $300,000 have been paid in benefits since its organization in 1868. B. B. BAUM, AGENT.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggists, OSBURN & SHOEMAKER, for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75-cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents. au7eod

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

Last summer while the European congress was in session Gortchakoff said that if the Chinese were allowed to obtain the improved fire arms invented in this century they would sweep the earth of all civilized nations. It is hard to conceive of the realization of this prophesy. Most people believe that such a high development of the nobler part of man has been obtained, that it would be impossible to obliterate it, bnt the more the subject is studied the more convincing proof we have that the human race has been nearly if not altogether as enlightened as the present generation is. The monstrous labors of the pyramids and other ancient works, the buried treasures of art with many other incontestible evidences exist to prove that there were ancient nations that had early in their history worked up through the stages in which we are today and advanced far beyond us in many things. Wendell Phillips delivered a thrilling, interesting lecture in which he proves, apparently to his entire satisfaction, that both the telegraph and railroad were used at the building of the pyramids, stonehenge and other ancient works. If Chinese immigration is not limited what is there to prevent the great Russians prediction from being fulfilled. The United States has a population of fifty million souls not ten million of which could fight in battle even at home. A hundred million Chinese could come here inside a year, if transportation was available, and gather a living where Americans are going hungry. Sharpened by contact with younger nations, rendered crafty at vice by instinct and the habit of self-defense induced by hostile surroundings, gaining courage by numbers and possessed with the desperation of religion, John would prove an awful foe if he rose in insurrection. The crisis might come in a war with his mother country when he would as certainly fight for her as if he had come over for the purpose with vessels of iron and cannons of steel with repeating rifles and all modern equipments a Chinese army could march from the Pacific to the Atlantic, sweeping every vestege of our ever having lived out of existence. It would be reinforced with recruits from every ranch, wash-house and factory it came to. A few of us might escape to the mountains and build cities of stone in inaccessible places where we would see the smoke of our homes ascending to the skies, in sacrifice to pagan deities. We would see every mark and line wiped out. There is nothing that would last through a thousand years vandalism. Our foundations are slight, our cellars and ditches would fill with drifting sand, our monuments would crumble, even the stumps where we have cut our timber would rot away. Then we would have a better solution of the ancient ruins than science can give us. We would build the counterparts of the dwellings in the unfrequented mountains of Mexico and Arizona, but our watchful enemy would get us in the end, as he lay like a cat waiting for a mouse at the doors of our cities, and when the rolling centuries brought another wave of all conquering civilization to these distant lands. Philosophers would speculate with owl-like wisdom on our last place of resort and tell our history in one short sentence. They will find the homes of the ancient nations of the south preserved by the dry winds of Arizona and bunching us altogether will say: "Here we have the evidences of a nation of sun worshipers who lived, flourished and died out thousands of years ago."

LEGISLATORS WEAKEN.

The GAZETTE has put forth what seemed to be good reasons for reducing the size of the Pyramid lake Indian reservation. To-day the evil effects of the present arrangement is seen in the criminal proceedings against a dozen men who have been engaged in fishing there. The whole lake, which is navigable water capable of floating the largest ships and which is often dotted with the white sails of the fishermens vessels is within the lines and therefore sacred. No white man can set foot within it. This is a strange proceeding and we believe without parallel; setting apart a large body of navigable water for private uses. Even if this benefitted any one it would be indefensible, but the truth is, it is of no service to the Indians whatever, except to prevent white men from fishing, because they never fish in the lake. They do all their fishing in the river and none whatever in the lake.

We noticed a beautiful calla lily on either side of the minister at the Methodist church Sunday. We can remember well when flowers in a Methodist church would have been cast out as unworthy a place in God's house. Even artificial flowers in ladies dresses were tabooed. The custom of placing something of that sort about the pulpit is very pleasing and we recommend it to all the churches.

The Lassen county people are devoting their leisure moments to Weed of the Advocate. His paper of the 15th says; "'We' are indebted to W. R. Wyne, etc." "We are under obligations to Mrs. Mary Long for a box of lucious apples. These kindly remembrances pleaseth the heart of the printer."

We get a valentine, etc.

The GAZETTE is glad to see contemporaries filling up with good things from it but is not averse to getting due credit. The Reveille uses us that way and the Enterprise still worse. It copies articles daily which are copied from the GAZETTE and gives credit to the copier instead of the original source.

The trade dollar is seen no more in our midst. Gone from our gaze like a beautiful dream is that rakish looking female sitting in her night-shirt on a bale of barley sacks, swinging her night-cap on the end of a bean pole.

"The old bridge at Milford has given out and a new one is being built by the county and adjoining land owners." This is designed especially for the use of "we" of the Lassen Advocate.

Why not give us the dog tax. There is every argument in its favor and a large addition to our revenue to come in from it. Let us hear from the newspapers on the subject.

Some one ought to start a petition to our legislature to memorialize congress to reduce the Pyramid lake reservation.

[Subscribed and sworn to by H. M. Yerrington, General Superintendent, and Wm. M. Thornton, Secretary, before A. H. Ricketts, Notary Public.]

The engineers of the railroad work at Kansas City, Missouri, wherein a high bank caved and smothered several workmen, have been arrested for criminal negligence in the matter.

CHAMPION OF THE WORLD.

Jacob Schaefer Wins the Tournament Trophy.

George Slosson Beaten by Only Twenty-Nine Points in the Greatest Game on Record—Schaefer Makes the Largest Average, and Slosson the Biggest Recorded Run.

[N. Y. Times, Feb. 8.]

George Slosson and Jacob Schaefer last night crossed their cues for the grand trophy, and after the greatest and most brilliant game ever played in the world, Slosson was vanquished, and with a banner that has been borne triumphantly through the brunt of seven consecutive battles. The great hall was crowded to its doors, and rang with a hoarse roar of many voices as, at 8:10 o'clock, Slosson, dressed in a new suit of black, sprang upon the players' platform and was followed, a moment later, by Schaefer, clad in a check suit, and accompanied by Mr. Michael Geary, the referee. He made a counting stroke from the "string," which was hailed with loud applause, and retired after playing fifteen open-table caroms, and his adversary then went to the table and played twelve pretty shots. In the fourth inning, Slosson, by a beautifully executed cushion carom, made with the aid of a "bridge," brought the balls to his favorite rail, and began his inimitable

"NURSING".

They "froze" on the sixty-ninth carom, and after counting prettily from the "string," he retired with a score of 95 to his adversary's 13. A slight tremor shook Schaefer's hand as he next went to the table, but his cue was swung with the easy grace so much resembling the artistic manipulation of a violin bow by a fine musician. He seemed, however, to have lost, for the moment, that accuracy which is the finest characteristic of his play, and retired after scoring one point.

Once more Slosson went to the table, gazed at the ivories a moment, lifted his cue, and made a counting stroke. Forty-two shots on the open table followed and then the ivories rolled to the player's favorite rail, and once more he began to "nurse," with marvelous delicacy of touch and fine judgment. He had counted 100 hundred amid a burst of enthusiastic applause, when Schaefer twice stepped him with a claim of "shove-shot," which the referree twice overruled. On and on the balls rolled, turning corners gracefully and continuing merrily on their way. One hundred, 200, 300, 350, 400 they counted, and ceasing a moment as the spectators cheered to the echo, the expert continued, and as he neared his the assemblage became so silent and their interest so intense that the great hall seemed deserted. Four hundred and forty one. The run is reached. Four hundred and forty-two. It is exceeded and the spectators cheer to the echo. Still the player continues, notwithstanding a "freeze" that causes the balls to be "spotted," until he finally fails on his 465th shot, and retires. A great burst of applause seemed to shake the building, as the score—Slosson 559, Schaefer 19—was announced, and the cheering and hand clapping continue until the player arises and bows in acknowledgement of the ovation.

Schaefer drank a draught of water, wiped his mouth, and with a self-possession that was little less than marvellous, approached the table to attempt the task of overcoming his adversary's almost insuperable lead. A dozen brilliant open-table shots drew the balls into position on the rail, and the player began to "nurse." His tremor of hand, perceptable at the opening of the game, is now succeeded by iron-like nerve, and he plays on until he has scored 283, and again the hall seems to shake with the applause of the on-lookers.

With but 41 points to give him victory Slosson stepped undauntedly to the table, but was "kissed" out on the fifteenth shot, which, had it counted, would have given him position on the rail. The scores stood, Slosson, 571; Schaefer, 302. The latter drew the balls together, and by the most brilliant "nursing" closed his score with a superb run of 298, winning a most magnificent up-hill game and making the LARGEST SINGLE AVERAGE IN RECORD.

The scene which followed passes description. A cordon or police surrounded the player to protect him from violent congratulations, but his friends burst through the guard and lifted the player on the table, where he was greeted with frantic demonstrations of approval. At the same time Slosson was presented by Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Schaefer, one of his relatives, with a beautiful basket of flowers in honor of his having scored the highest run on record. Slosson also carries off the best grand average of the tournament—37 and a fraction, Schaefer's grand average being 30 and a fraction. Appended is the score:

Schaefer—12,0, 1, 1, 5, 283, 298—600.

Slosson—15, 9, 0, 71, 0, 464, 12—571.

Winner's average—85, 5-7; loser's, 81 4 7.

Best runs—Slosson, 464, 71; Schaefer, 298, 283.

Umpires—Mr. Davis for Schaefer, Mr. Sexton for Slosson.

Referee—Michael Geary; marker, G. H. Ellis.

Time of game—1 hour and 27 minutes.

Slosson having taken second prize the "tie" between Sexton and Daly for third and fourth prizes only remain to be played.

A dispatch from Chicago states that the Catholic Bishop Foley is in a very critical condition on account of severe bronchial pneumonia. The chances are about even of recovery.

JOTTINGS

—Major Underwood is in town.

—Judge Wright, of Carson, is in Reno, staying at the Depot house.

—The Truckee is booming full, and for a wonder no sawdust is coming down.

—The lightning express arrived this morning 40 minutes late. The delay was occasioned by having an extra sleeper to haul.

—The California theatrical troupe the mempers of which have been stopping at the Pollard House, departed for Virginia yesterday, where they will exhibit themselves in the sock and buskin for the delectation of the Comstockers.

—L. S. Burchard, who has been heretofore connected with the GAZETTE in the capacity of local, has accepted a similar position on the Journal. Mr Burchard is a pleasant, affable gentleman, and the GAZETTE wishes him success in his new field.

Will Open Soon.

A GAZETTE representative learned this morning that the new butcher shop of Messrs. Earnest, Nowatky & Rohrs would open day after to-morrow. The carpenter work is finished and the painting and graining nearly done. It will be a handsome place, indeed, when ready for opening.

Elected Trustees.

The following named gentlemen were to-day elected trustees of the Verdi Flume Company, at Verdi; William Merrill, N. J. Foxwell, Thos. E. Haydon, S. A. Hamlin and W. J. Marsh, Wm. Foxwell was elected president.

At the Reno Nursery, Reno, Nev., 100,000 FRUIT AND SHADE TREES. I will sell hereafter by the hundred FOR CASH, at the Nursery, for one-half the usual price.

STEPHEN CONNER, Proprietor

CARSON COSSIP.

A "Gazette" Reporter in the Hub of Sageland.

Yesterday a GAZETTE reporter donned a clean shirt and a stand-up collar, sharpened a fresh pencil and started for the capital. Beyond a threat of the conducter to throw the aforesaid scribe off, the journey was devoid of startling events. Arriving at the capitol, the reporter made a dash for the senate chamber. That body was adjourned upon his appearance in order to give the honorable senators an opportunity to shake the reportorial paw and ask the reporter to take a drink. Hand-shaking and imbibing with the solons of the upper house being through with, the reporter protruded his olfactory nerve into the assembly chamber, following up this advantage with the less brilliant portion of his anatomy. The scene in the assembly at the moment of the reporter's entrance was at once

SUBLIME AND PORTENTOUS.

The speaker was standing up, with Jefferson's manuel in one hand and his gavel in the other, gesticulating furiously, his teeth clenched tightly and a wild look in his eye, for all the world like a circuit-riding Methodist parson just after a revival exhortation. A dozen members were on their feet, some shouting "aye" and some "no," while a portly member, with his sleeves rolled up and a very red face, was excitedly asking in stentorian tones what in the ding-donged thunder they were voting upon. Several other members were busy conversing with members of the third house, and in some instances the lobby members inadvertently called out "aye" or "no" as the case might be, for their preoccupied friends. Still others were inquiring of their neighbors whether it was the railroad bill or a motion to adjourn they were voting on and getting with singular unanimity the answer that they DIDN'T KNOW.

All of which goes to show that a man needn't know anything about what he is voting on to make a good legislater. Fred Hart was the only entirely collected person in the hall, and he sat at his desk with a roll of manuscript thrust behind his ear, twirling a pencil with a rubber band around it in his fingers, a benign look of peace on his face, as if his mind and pious thoughts were intent. McEwen sat stabbing the copy of a railroad bill with his pen, with a savage earnestness, as if he were giving wicked sword thrusts at its author. The agony was over at last and the house stood adjourned, and the members either gathered in knots on the sidewalk to discuss the proceedings or slid up and

CROOKED THEIR ELBOWS

in front of the big mirror at the Ormsby House. The Ormsby House bar was packed and jammed with "law-makers" and legislators, and a continual "buzzing" was kept up. A gentleman, well informed as to all the ins and outs of legislative proceedings, told the reporter that more laws were made in the Ormsby than in the Capitol. From conversations heard by the reporter on the street and else where, he is of the opiuion that very few bills

WILL GET THROUGH.

during the remainder of the session. This result will be brought about by the multiplicity of bills to be acted upon and the machinations of the railroad lobby, whose tactics are to lock the wheels of legislation rather than defeat the freight and fare bill. The friends of the people are begining to despair of effecting any decided reform in that direction this session. One of the strongest friends of the Woodburn bill told the reporter that there was little or no hope of its passing even the assembly, and that it was certain to be defeated or amended to death in the senate. There was, he said, a suspicious willingness among members to have long private talks with avowed railroad lobbyist, and that these members were always afraid after such conversations, of doing injustice to the railroads, "crippling industry, you know." They want to regulate fares and freights, but they must be sure that the railroads will not be wronged by any hasty or inconsiderate measure. They want to find out how it will operate, but it is a curious fact that they always go to the railroad men for their information, The railroad men will strain every nerve to prevent the freight and fare bill from coming to a final vote. There is so many weak members who have sold their constituents for a mess of pottage and who will vote for their masters when the pinch comes, that want to get themselves "right on the record, you know." This is one reason why the railroad men will screen their allies if possible; but another reason may be found in the fact that they may want to use them again.

THE INSANE ASYLUM BILL

is not likely to fare well in the senate from what the reporter was able to learn. Several senators were heard to say that it would be tabled and thereby killed. Such a course would not argue well for the sense or convictions of senators. If they think the bill ought not to pass, let them vote against it, but dodging the issue by tabling it shows a disposition to shirk responsibility. Tabling bills is a favorite method with weak-kneed legislators of throttling any measure that will place them on record. They fear the record and resort to all kinds of expedients to dodge a square vote. The bill would be sure to pass if it were not for the jealousy that Ormsby, Humboldt and Elko counties entertain against Washoe. With some of the senators from the counties named, that is the moving cause of their action. There seems to be considerable difference of opinion as to what the governor will do in case the bill passes the senate. Some believe that the governor will sign it while others are confident that he will not.

DR. LANGDON

is doing his utmost to defeat it and, as he has plenty of coin at his disposal, and the Smallimits (to use aMcEwenism) are not scarce, the amount of "influence" he may exert is a matter hardly to be estimated. However, the public will be apprised of the result by to-morrow, as the bill comes up in the senate to-day.

CAPITAL JOKES.

An Eastern senator introduced Hon. Richard Guiberson to the GAZETTE representative, as the fourth senator from Eureka county, Cresswell being the third. Another senator had the audacity to call Senator Cassidy's vote commercial paper that was always negotiable. Such unfeeling remarks have a tendency to lessen a senator's influence.

MY LADY LOVE.

BY J. B. WHITEHEAD.

Poets have wrote and Bards have sang.
Of woman great and fair.
But my Lady love surpasses them all.
None can with her compare.

Her form is neat and graceful.
Her hair the richest brown.
When bound upon her shapely head.
It forms a lovely crown.

Her skin's as soft as velvetteen
Her brow a lillie hue.
Her hands and feet are models.
Her Eyes the deepest blue.

Her lips are like some rare fruit.
So lucious sweet and red.
Her cheeks are like two Rose buds.
By fragrant nature fed.

Her teeth are like pears set in rows.
With mechanical precision.
Her waist is pretty round and trim.
So like a fairy vision.

Her disposition is so sweet and good.
Her temperament, so fine.
All nature loves to greet her face.
So amiable meek and kind.

She is skilled in all the modern arts.
And learned in science too.
And any kind of fancy work.
There is nothing she can't do.

In music she does quite excell: her voice.
A Jennie Lyn's out rings.
The soul of man with rapture swells.
When e'er she plays and sings.

She waltzes like a graceful Princess.
And whirls with playful glee.
When gliding around in vacant space.
A heavenly sight to see.

Her very move is lith and lady like.
Her every thought refined.
She is a rare and precious flower.
The gem of woman kind.

How I adore: this angel girl
No human tongue can tell.
No power on earth by man possessed.
Can e'er my love trammel.

From morn till eve she is my thought.
I dream of her each night
No mortal robes around me twined.
Could hide her from my sight.

Could I embrace her handsom form
Gaze in those translucent Eyes.
My mind would find its ethereal boon.
My soul its tranquil paradise.

Yet I would not touch her tender hand.
To speak I am afraid.
I can not: must not: dare not hope.
To win this lovely maid.

Nought but death can give relief.
Mo my now raveing brain.
It a lone can still my beating heart.
And ease my rageing pain.

And to that day; that final hour I look.
With hopeful ceaseless yearning.
When passions agonizeing heart will cool.
When loves fire will cess its burning.

HARDSCRABBLE RANCH, February 15th, 1879.

A Beautiful Flight.

The spirit of song has again swept over the face of the lake and held communion with the sweet singer of the sage brush at Hardscrabble ranch. Another of those gentle lays which have soothed and comforted so many readers of the GAZETTE, appears today. Many an aching heart will find expression in the delicate shadings of the poet's lines, for the gnawing pangs of unreciprocated love which is concealed within its secret chambers. Many an unbidden tear will start at the recollection of days long fled and eyes forgotten by all save one, which this little poem will recall. Instead of mounting his Pegasus and facing the rude blast which tears the bosom of his mountain lake and whispering in rhyme the charming descriptions of the bold scenery which his adventurous foot has so often pressed, he takes up the shepherd's pipe and pours out his soul in tender lines to her he sighs for. To the lover of Bobby Burns the similarity of the two poets is very striking. Both followed the plow, and both got their inspiration direct from nature with no artificial flourishes from college or parlor; both find happy expressions for the height of ecstacy which fills the lover's soul. Nothing could better voice the universal sentiment, that the sweetheart that reigns for the time in the young man's affections is chief, than the first stanza, closing:

"None can with her compare."

The description which follows is worthy the author of Tam O'Shanter. While her accomplishments make her perfect even to

"Any kind of fancy work
There's nothing she can't do."

The first part of this contrast of song reminds one of Burns' piece entitled: "On Cassnock Banks." And beginning:

"On Cassnock banks a lassie dwells.
Could I describe her shape and mien,
Our lasses all, she far excells.
And she has twa sparkling, rougish een."

The young poet is only different from his immortal predecessor in his modesty which is equal to his talent. Instead of following the presuming rakishness of Burns' verse, he plaintively wails out:

"To speak I am afraid.
Nought but death can give relief." etc.

Still reminding one somewhat of Banks of Doon," or "The Farewell," beginning:

"Ae fond kiss and then we sever."

There are many beauties which must be left to the cultivated eye of the reader to discover as our space compels us to be brief. It is likely that Mr. Whitehead will collect his gems and publish them in book form where they can be referred to and studied more conveniently than in newspaper type.

Hymenial.

Ever since the Creator took the rib from the sleeping Adam and fashioned t in the facinating shape of a woman, man has sought the silken meshes of matrimony, finding the highest enjoyment in the roseate slavery of wedlock. The gentle sweets of hymen are as popular now as in the days when our ancestors joined hands and fig-leaf wardrobes in the garden of Eden. The last to stick their heads into the matrimonial noose were Miss Lida Hutchinson and C. J. Brookins, who were yesterday pronounced man and wife by Rev. Chas. McKelvey. The happy couple took the cars for the Bay city, immediately after the ceremony, where they taste the first bloom of nuptial life amid the orange groves and balmy clime of the gentle Pacific. The GAZETTE force regaled themselves in the frosted cake and sparkling wine in honor of this event, and in bumpers of frothy champagne, wished the new married couple a thousand years of unalloyed happiness.

Let the Public Judge.

EDITOR GAZETTE: I have naturally objected to Mr. I. Fredrick's unpleasant practice of misrepresenting the capacity of my establishment in the jewelry and watchmaking line. In return Mr. F. makes an exhibition of anger and forgetfulness which ought to be noticed by your readers as a natural curiosity. Mr. F. challenges me to prove that he has ever failed to give satisfaction. I do not desire to prove it. I know better, indeed, since Mr. F. has had all his intricate watch work done in my store since January 18th, 1879. The old gentleman has forgotten where his work was done. I help his memory, therefore, by citing these charges made against I. Fredrick on my watchmaker's books for watchwork, all of which he duly paid. From January, 1878, to January, 1879, $215 25. The books to that effect are open for inspection for anyone wishing to see them. When my friend Mr. F. says that I never did work for him he does not mean that the work was not done in my shop, merely that I did not personally perform it. As testified by my work and hard earned certificate, I am a jeweler and always keep a first-class watchmaker employed. Mr. Fredrick is neither and gets violent as though I were to blame. Mr. F. is anxious to call me a liar. After showing the above figures I might perhaps retort in kind. If, however, the people will read these figures they will know how Mr. F. has been able to render satisfaction on their watches, and also see that it is entirely unnecessary for me to call the irate gentleman any names.

S. N. DAVIDSON.

RENO, Feb. 12th, 1879.

True as Steel.

LODI, Cal., Jan. 10th, 1879.

HALL'S SAFE AND LOCK CO., San Francisco, Cal.—GENTS—One night last week, (Dec. 30, 1878), some cracksmen broke into my store for the purpose of robbing my Hall's Patent Fire and Burglar-proof Safe, purchased of you some time since. They were, however, apparently satished to give it up as a bad job. After tampering with the lock, which they found impossible to pick, their efforts were directed against the burglar-proof box compartment, which they doubtless knew contained money and valuables. A piece of iron about as large as my hand was first cut out from one side of the safe; drills were then sent in against the burglar box, evidently to test the question whether or not the box could be drilled and powder injected. Their drills failed to make any impression whatever upon the steel box, and these worthies were forced to abandon their undertaking. From the artistic manner in which these rascals attacked my safe, I am satisfied that they were professional cracksmen who understand their business.

Your Safe proved itself to be what you claimed for it, viz: Fire and Burglar Proof.

Cordially commend your manufacture of Safes to public favor. Yours, very truly, feb11-1w C. O. IVORY.

"Verbum Sap Sapienti."

When the Army of the Potomac under Gen. McClellan was making its famous march "on to Richmond," the newspapers throughout the land vied with each other in frantic efforts to make a great noise about it, and really for a time made the whole world believe that the exploits of said general and his army were about the only enterprise on foot. Meanwhile General Grant in his quiet and persevering way was "pushing things" in another quarter and accomplishing what he was after. So likewise, while other barbers in RENO are making a furor in the papers about their commodious rooms, elegant outfits, neat shaving, shampooing, etc., etc., it should not be forgotten that Lee "still lives," and maintains his business in his usual quiet and unostentatious way, next door east of Fogg's meat market, Commercial Row, where he will be happy to greet all his old patrons and new ones as well, trusting in his ability to attend to all their wants in the "tonsorial" line in a prompt and satisfactory manner.

To the Public.

I challenge any one to prove that I have ever failed to give satisfaction. My work speaks for itself and my reputation is too well established to be injured by any slurs gratuitously spread by a business rival. I have said and still maintain that S. N. Davidson is no watchmaker. I do get my fine jewelry work done in San Francisco, but never yet have failed to give satisfaction both in price and workmanship, and the work is better than can be done in Reno. I can prove that on more than one occasion I have had jobs brought to my store to be remade that have been botched by S. N. Davidson. And I further state that if says he that he ever did a dollar's work for me he is a liar.

A FEW FACTS

Which I Submit to the Public for Decision.

For the purpose of withdrawing patronage from my store Mr. Davidson recently commenced a mean attack on me in the columns of the local papers, which I indignantly resented. When two persons flatly contradict each other the one or the other must lie. Let us see who did so in this instance:

Mr. Davidson wishes the public to believe that I have sent "all my intricate watchwork" to him personally. This is a gross misrepresentation of the facts, as I will show. I have employed Mr. W. Goeggel, who does his watchwork, to do my work occasionally—once when buying goods in San Francisco, on an other occasion when sick, and sometimes when overcrowded with work—but this was at times when the gentleman was working for Mr. Davidson on commission ONLY, and therefore not strictly a clerk in his employ. Mr. D. received no benefit for any work so given out by me, and I hold and shall willingly exhibit to any one wishing to see them, receipts signed by said workman, in which Mr. Davidson's name is not even referred to—a most potent proof as to which of us lies. On examination of these receipts I find that I have paid Mr. Goeggel from February 19th, 1878, to January 14th, 1879, just $166 75, which represents only a small portion of my work during that time. Compare these figures with those of Mr. Davidson ($215 25) and see who lies. Again; the book in which Mr. Goeggel kept my account is his private property, and Mr. Davidson had no right whatever to examine it. As to my being neither watchmaker nor jeweler, I will leave that question to public judgment, although I may say I learned my trade in London, England, years ago, and although somewhat advanced in years, can hold my own in the former trade with any one, and the confidence my patrons have in me is a sufficient guarantee of my status as a jeweler In conclusion I will state, should this meet the eye of Mr. Davidson, and should he feel inclined to answer this, in order to draw out another reply from me, the gentleman can rest assured that I will no more pay attention to his misrepresentations, as I feel myself far above Mr. Davidson, either as a citizen or in business circles, and in all other respects, and as for integrity, I can refer the public to the commercial world, with pride, which I challenge Mr. Davidson to do.

feb13tf I. FREDRICK.

A Card to the Public.

All those who think the rumor spread by a certain jeweler in town true, that I cannot repair watches and jewelry of all grades, will find their mistake by giving me a trial. The person who circulated the above cannot do work himself and in order not to allow his neighbor to live, says it cannot be done in Reno, thereby misleading the public and compelling them to send work to larger cities. Hence, when he has some difficult work to perform, he sends it to my store to be done.

I hope the public will no longer allow themselves to be mislead, but will call at my store with the work other jewelers cannot do, and be convinced. S. N. DAVIDSON.

Raphael informs his patrons and the general public that he is about to visit San Francisco to secure for his spring trade, the largest and finest stock of goods suitable for gentlemen's clothing, that has ever been brought to Reno. He also takes this occasion to thank his many friends for their generous patronage, extended to him through a period of three years, and promises, with increased accommodations and continued attention to business, to merit the same patronage in the future as he has enjoyed in the past. tf.

SIMMOND'S

NABOB WHISKEY

Consumers are referred to the following extract from the report of an eminent Public Analyst:

This is a pure barley and wheat spirit, remarkable in fragrant ethers, which impart a delicate aroma, at the same time greatly increasing its value as a diffusive stimulant. The solid residue contains a large amount of tannin, derived from storing in oak casks, which imparts to fine old whisky one of its valuable individual qualities. The amount of the residue proves the whisky to be free from the excessive coloring and sweetening so generally used in adulterating. In fact, in two words, it is the PUREST WHISKY, and will not only supply a public want, now that whiskies are so generally adulterated, but will be of the greatest value to the physician in those numerous cases where pure whiskies are the most useful of all medicine.

LEGAL NOTICES.

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judical District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Ardeen Jones greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Jemima Jones as plaintiff in the District court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons, (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff alleges: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Mono county, California, on or about July 29th, A. D. 1874, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that on or about September 9th, A. D. 1875, you, the defendant, willfully deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since have so continued and do now so continue to desert, abandon and live apart from the plaintiff against her will, wish or consent; that for more than a year next preceeding the commencement of this action you, the defendant, have failed and neglected and now do fail and neglect to provide for the plaintiff the common necessities of life, which neglect is and was not the result of poverty on your part which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that there are no children living of the issue of said marriage and no common property. Plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name and for costs, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

SEAL. In testimony whereof I, P. B. Comstock, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this sixth day of December, A. D. 1878.

P. B. COMSTOCK,
Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe county.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION ISsued out of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, on the 29th day of January, A. D. 1879, and to me directed and delivered, for a judgment rendered in said Court on the 27th day of September, A. D. 1878, in favor of Giuseppe Rinaldo, plaintiff, and against Patrick McCurron, defendant, for the sum of five hundred, forty-four and 86-100 dollars, ($544 86), with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from the date of said judgment till paid, together with costs and disbursements amounting to one hundred, thirty-nine and 75-100 dollars ($139 75), and accruing costs now amounting to twenty-eight and 20-100 dollars ($28 20), all in U. S. gold coin, I have on the 30th day of January, A. D. 1879, levied on the following real property, to-wit: All the right, title and interest of the said defendant in and to that certain lot or parcel of land known and described on the official map of the town of Reno, county of Washoe, State of Nevada, as: "Lot number eighteen (18), in block 1," together with all the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging thereunto. Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the eleventh day of March, A. D. 1879, between the hours of 9 o'clock, A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M., to-wit at 2 o'clock P. M., I will sell all the right, title and interest of said defendant of, in and to the above described real property, at the court-house door, at Reno, county of Washoe, State of Nevada, at public auction, for cash in hand, to the highest and best bidder, to satisfy said execution, costs and accruing costs, and expenses of this sale, all in U. S. gold coin W. A. WALKER, Sheriff of Washoe county, Nevada.

AN INFALLIBLE Hair Restorative, which will restore the grayest hair to its natural color, remove dandruff, and prevent or stop the hair from falling out. It is cleansing and invigorating, making the hair healthy and glossy in all instances. It will reproduce a growth of substantial hair to bald heads when the roots of the hair (however feeble) are left. I warrant this Hair Restorative to be harmless, and to do all that is claimed for it. It is not a new article, but has been it the market since 1868.
